

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

National Reconciliation Week Assembly

Last week we celebrated as a community National Reconciliation Week.

This period of national recognition of the first peoples of this land is an important part of righting the past and building our community of Australia.

Reconciliation is a journey for all of us, as individuals, families, communities, and organisations. This is a time to pause and think about what are the relationships in our society, particularly between the broader community and the First Peoples of this land.

Yes, Australia as a whole, many organisations as a whole, St Paul's, as a whole, have put in place structures and programs to acknowledge the importance Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders have in forming an inclusive and fair community across Australia.

We are not there yet. In fact, we are a long way from being there. The goal is to have a situation where our communities acknowledge the great culture and traditions First Nations people have and actively work to ensure all in our society have the same opportunities and support.

Our challenge, as individuals then, is to be aware of the need to all work together to continually move toward a shared community that respects, acknowledges and welcomes all.

Sorry Day was acknowledged in the preceding week, followed by National Reconciliation Week. Our acknowledgment of the traditional carers of this land each time we meet, our acknowledgment and acceptance of building a fair society for all is part of this reconciliation process. I believe this challenge does not have an end point, it is and always should be the challenge of any society or community to build a fair community.

I encourage all in our community to think about where you can add to the achievement of this challenge, it may be simply be welcoming to all, it may be volunteer work, it may be active action in raising awareness of the importance of this challenge. Whatever it is, the important thing is that we all have to part to play in creating a society and community where all are welcome.

I thank the RAP team, the SRC and Miss Stewart for their dedication in providing the college community with a reflective and thoughtful assembly that challenged all of us and recognised the importance of Reconciliation has as individuals, a community and as a nation

Open Afternoon/Evening.

Thursday afternoon saw the college open its doors to visitors. Parents and students from our community were able to come in for a tour, ask questions, see the great facilities we have here at the college.

Those attending included many of our Year 7 students and parents for 2022 along with students from other year groups and families from outside the college.

Classrooms and facilities were on show, teachers and Leaders of learning were available for questions and information. Mrs Shipman and Mrs Carter were also travelling around the college with parents to be available for any questions.

It was a great way to connect with our wider community and I thank those in attendance and particularly the staff that were available on the afternoon/evening.

Year 12 Trials

From Monday this week Year 12 have been completing their HSC Trial Examinations. This is a very important period for year 12 to test their preparation in each course before their final examination early in Term 4.

I commend Year 12 on the way they have prepared these examinations and the way they have presented for each. It can be a stressful time and I know the levels of angst that can be associated with Trial Examinations. Students and families should use this time and the time immediately following the Trial as an evaluation of where they are at in their final preparations and put strategies in place to address any gaps or areas to improve.

Don't forget to follow us on Facebook for daily updates of the College.

Have a great long weekend.

Learning & Goal Setting

I have enjoyed visiting classrooms over the past few weeks and discussing with students their attitudes about their learning and how they approach their learning. It has struck me how quickly students will often describe their perception of intelligence as something that is fixed and can't be changed. This is an aspect of learning that I believe teachers and families can help our young people change their awareness of. As I have often explained to students, no matter where you think you are now with your learning, your ability to master knowledge and skills is an area of untapped potential! Teachers and parents can assist our young people in developing their self-efficacy – the belief they have of their ability to achieve an outcome or reaching a goal. Self-efficacy shapes the behaviours and strategies that help students pursue goals.

High self-efficacy reflects confidence in the ability to exert control over their motivation, behaviour, and environment, and allows students to become advocates for their own needs and supports. Research suggests that self-efficacy can boost student achievement, foster emotional health and well-being, and serve as a valid predictor of motivation and learning. Studies also have shown that students with high levels of self-efficacy participate more in class, persist longer, and are able to effectively solve problems when encountering difficulties than students with lower self-efficacy. One way in which we are supporting students to cultivate higher levels of self-efficacy is through the inclusion of self-reflection on reports. Students can use this information to help them set goals for their learning. Using the SMART goal strategy is a good way to start setting goals and students are encouraged to write these down and share them at home.

S	M	A	R	T
SPECIFIC	MEASURABLE	ACTIONABLE	REALISTIC	TIMEBOUND
Be clear and specific so your goals are easier to achieve. This also helps you know how and where to get started!	Measurable goals can be tracked, allowing you to see your progress. They also tell you when a goal is complete.	Are you able to take action to achieve the goal? Actionable goals ensure the steps to get there are within your control.	Avoid overwhelm and unnecessary stress and frustration by making the goal realistic.	A date helps us stay focused and motivated, inspiring us and providing something to work towards.

Trial HSC Examinations

The HSC Trial Examinations are taking place during week 8 and 9 this term. Students are commended on the way they have conducted themselves from the focused approach demonstrated in the library to their promptness in arriving on time for schedule examinations. The importance of trial examinations is not only to practice examination conditions but to also allow students to identify possible gaps in what they know and understand to this point in their courses. Students are encouraged to use the feedback they will receive in week 10 this term and early next term to evaluate their approach to each course. Term 3 is an opportunity to develop a consistent approach to study as the HSC examinations are only ##### school days away.

Year 11 Reports

Parents, carers and students received the Year 11 Mid-Course report this week. These reports are an opportunity for students to evaluate how they are approaching the rigours of Stage 6 studies. At this point in Year 11 students often speak about the need to be organised and to regularly seek feedback from teachers in order to understand where they are with their learning. Students are encouraged to ask themselves: How am I going? How do I know? What are my next steps? The last question is the most important as this is where students develop greater advocacy for their learning. If students can not identify their next steps they need to approach their teachers for guidance and advice.

Year 7-10 Learning and Reports

Teachers are currently preparing the Year 7-10 reports which will be published early next term. These reports will include a grade for each course based on the Common Grade Scale or the Course Performance Descriptors (NESA Advice On Awarding Grades). Grades are determined by teachers based on the evidence gathered during learning and incorporates assessment tasks, both formal and informal, along with the work students have shown in class. Our focus on formative assessment allows students to demonstrate what they know and can do across a wide range of learning experiences therefore providing students with multiple opportunities to show growth in their learning.

St Paul's wins Champion School at Diocesan Public Speaking Competition

Giving a speech to a room full of people is a formidable challenge. Delivering a speech after only five minutes preparation is even more intimidating. On Thursday June 10th, a group of students from St Paul's had the courage and wit to compete in the annual Diocesan Public Speaking Competition and came away as Champion School!

The contest was held at the Catholic Schools Office in Newcastle. Catholic Schools from around the Maitland-Newcastle Diocese sent their best public speakers to compete. Students were required to deliver a prepared speech in the first round, and then an impromptu speech with only five minutes preparation time.

The students who represented St Paul's were Madeline Platt and Arrabella McLeish from Year 7; Mia Holmes and Pyper McAllister from Year 8; Kirrily Boslem and Bethany Evans competing in the Year 9 category; Rosemary Hale from Year 10; Evie Jones and Jordyn Laucht from Year 11.

All the students delivered impressive speeches and represented the school admirably. The students performed so well that St Paul's achieved the highest overall score and was awarded Champion School. There were also some commendable individual results, including Madeline Platt - 2nd in the Year 7A category, Kirrily Boslem – 1st in the Year 9A category, Bethany Evans (a Year 8 student) – first in the Year 9B category, Rosemary Hale – 1st in the Year 10A category and Jordyn Laucht - 2nd in the Year 11B category.

A huge thank you to Mrs Libby Lucas and Miss Olivia Moscidis who recruited the team and helped them prepare for the day.

DRAMAFEST

On Wednesday 2nd June Years 9, 10 and 11 Drama students travelled to All Saints College St Marys in Maitland to attend Dramafest. This annual event is sponsored and coordinated by the ASPIRE team and gave our students a wonderful opportunity to develop their drama and performance skills while working with other like-minded drama students from schools from across the Diocese. Students were able to select their preferred workshops to attend in an area of interest and these workshops were run by industry professionals including the Australian Theatre for Young People, Upstage Youth Theatre, Scott Witt from Combat Circus and actor Angie Diaz (AKA Pink Power Ranger Mystic Force 2006). The workshops the students could select from included; Stage Combat, Physical Theatre, Character, Playbuilding through Improvisation, Comedy and Script to Stage. Our students had a fantastic day of creating and physicality, many so exhausted that they went to sleep on the bus ride home. Great Job guys!!!

St Paul's Day, Friday 25 June, 2021

The last day of Term 2 each year is celebrated as St Paul's Day.

St Paul's Day is a celebration of our school patron – St Paul.

The day begins with a Care Group activity where all students will co-create a mural to celebrate the community of St Paul's. This will be displayed in the library.

The celebration will continue with the story of St Paul and his willingness to live the gospel and create a gospel-centred community.

Following this liturgy Year 11 students run the annual "St Paul's Got Talent" Quest. This fun activity involves a wide range of students who showcase their talents to the whole school. A lot of clapping and cheering is usually involved.

After the formal part of the day is over, students will enjoy a series of food stalls, carnival rides and sporting activities for the rest of the day.

There will be no formal lessons or organised sport on this day.

This is an Out of Uniform Day and our policy on modest clothing will apply and appropriate attire for carnival rides is encouraged.

There will be a small charge for the carnival rides. These rides include: the mechanical bull, jumping castle, chair-o-plane ride and sizzler.

The food stalls that will be available on the day include a sausage sizzle, pizza, soft drinks, donuts, milkshakes, cakes and lollies. The food and rides are heavily subsidised by the School, however there is a small cost of $1-2 for each food item and $5 for 7 ride tickets. Students will need to bring some money if they choose to buy food or go on the rides.
