12 November 2021 Vol: 12-21

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

It seems a very long time ago that I sat at my computer to write a newsletter to our community and I suppose that is true. Much has happened in the past few months including lock-down, remote learning, Year 12 final days and much more. In reality, my last article would have been back in Term One before I took leave. On my return at the beginning of this term, I wrote to the community thanking you all for allowing me to have the renewal time that I needed. I feel good about my return and it is wonderful to be back with friends and colleagues.

The return to school for our students has been very smooth. Like the return that happened last year, I think that the vast majority were keen to get back to face to face learning with their friends. The current mask restriction has been accepted well by the students, but I will admit, it does make us all rather tired at the end of the day. There is nothing better than breathing fresh air! I do feel for our Year 12 students who are also required to wear masks during their exams, but I suppose that they are all in the same boat as every other Year 12 student sitting the exams.

We were able to stage a lovely Farewell to our HSC Class of 2021 culminating with the Final Awards Ceremony and Liturgy. It needed to be a tightly choreographed affair and I would like to publicly thank all the amazing staff who worked so hard to make the events happen so seamlessly. I suspect that when we all got into teaching, we would never have predicted that we would become stage managers, choreographers, directors, set designers, video technicians and sound and lighting experts! The students were so giving of their time and willingness to support what we were trying to do for them under very challenging public health orders. The final thank you goes to Blair Brownlee and Jess Dufty, the Year 12 Leaders of Wellbeing and Engagement who have guided this group through two years of great challenge.

The HSC has commenced with rules and regulations that reflect the time. At the point of writing, English and Music are now complete and by all reports they have been fair and reasonable papers where the students have been able to show their learning appropriately. I hope that I am able to report the same as the exams continue.

COVID restrictions have resulted in many modifications to the ways that we do everyday things including our sports program. At this point we will continue to hold extra lessons on Friday afternoon and include some extra PE lessons for juniors as we can. The biggest hurdle we have is that we cannot mix cohorts and we can only have large groups together outside which makes the use of our hall problematic. I hope and pray that after the HSC is over, the health orders become more school friendly. We continue to follow the COVID regulations with cleaning and mask wearing along with attempted social distancing! In reality, this is the most challenging aspect for all schools, and I suspect the rule makers have a very rose-coloured view of how young people operate. In relation to mask wearing, I do ask that you have a conversation with your children about the need to wear masks on public transport. This includes all school busses and trains. I was speaking to one of the bus drivers earlier in the week and he reported that some of our students are reluctant to follow that particular health order. I thank you for your support.

On Wednesday afternoon this week we also hosted our Year 11 Awards Ceremony. We held the awards in Holland Court (an outside venue) and it was a lovely occasion. Congratulations to all our award winners. Thank you to Mr Cayte Pryor and her support team for organising the event.

The term is moving on very quickly. We are trying to work out how we might be able to have End of Year Activities. Mrs Shipman and a group of teachers are meeting regularly and are in contact with venues that might be able to support the College in having the activities in the final week of the year. More information will be coming out soon.

Enjoy the longer days. I hope that you are able to avoid any storms that seem to be about this time of the year.

Go gently.

Mr Graeme Selmes
Principal

Year 12 News

*Lily Ryder – winner of the 12PDHPE

For the latest 'Spotlight' article we arranged to meet Year 12 student Reegan Bradley.

Reegan is a hardworking student who has demonstrated an admirable dedication to her studies and extracurricular activities.

Reegan's favourite subject is Community and Family Studies (CAFS). She enjoys this subject as she believes it has ample real-life relevance and will be helpful should she pursue a career in Primary School Teaching; a field which definitely interests her.

Some of the content that Reegan has studied in CAFS was recently magnified when she took part in the Vinnie's Sleepout, an experience that gave her and other St Paul's seniors a glimpse into the realities of homelessness. The sleepout raised almost $2000 which went directly to some of the most vulnerable in our community.

Reegan balances her schoolwork with her casual job in a fast food outlet where she is currently completing her Certificate II in Retail. She enjoys a busy social life and loves sport, especially soccer. One of Reegan's role models is her cousin Cassidy Davis who is mid-fielder with the Newcastle Jets Women's team.

After the HSC, Reegan is keen to study at Newcastle University. She is a hardworking and passionate student who will achieve great things in the future, and we wish Reegan all the best for her upcoming HSC.

Year 10 Poetry – ‘Where I am From’

10 English B have been exploring imaginative writing, poetry and the power of memory. In class, we have discussed that we are from so much more than where we live and our geographical location – we are from our experiences, our families, our friendships, our childhood and our memories.

We hope you enjoy the class samples that follow. Stay tuned for additional pieces in future newsletters!

I Am From...

I am from two different homes,
one is quiet the other loud.

One that smells of mum’s home cooking,
the other smells like the ocean.

I’m from Christmas with all my family and my nan’s pasta;
hot and rich bolognaise,
piled on my plate.

I am from a family of five,
from every Wednesday,
at Aunty Lou’s.

I am from an Italy heritage,
my dad’s sayings; ‘mungi’,
meaning ‘let’s eat!’

I am from the beaches and the city,
and the lake and bush,
fishing with my dad,
watching movies with mum.

I am from the Paramatta Eels,
to watching them play,
on TV every week.

I’m from riding the streets with my friends,
And staying up late with them at night.

I am from my memories, my mates and my people.

Kaiden Calo

I Am From

I am Palisade St Edgeworth, feeling of overgrown grass to the smell of wood chip.
I am Maggie, my first puppy, my first real friend.

I am Nerf fights with siblings and exploring the bush making a ‘fire’ and discovering new things, from naming lizards to feeding kookaburra’s.

I am my father’s humour and my mother’s complexion,
from Aboriginal and Polish background,
I am staying up late with my older sister,
getting distracted; one thing after another.

I am Hawaii, Lacey’s first holiday, celebrating Sam’s birthday.

I am my friends, who have helped make me who I am now.

I am finally figuring out who I am.
Getting songs stuck in my head and learning them on the guitar.

I am Alani, my best friend for 11 years now,
from Scouts and Venturers, where I met new friends.

I am gaming, from discovering the dinosaur I did not know even existed,
to taming it later.

I’m meeting an amazing group of people and defeating bosses together.

I am Christmas mornings at mama’s,
massive breakfasts leaving us full for hours,
from wrapping gifts for ‘family friends’,
bound to be forgotten, discarded.

I am my family, being a role model for my younger siblings promising to protect them from bullies and boyfriends.

I’m family trips to the snow and getting injured while skiing,
from late night hot chocolates with melted marshmallows

I am all those moments, and the promise of more to come future memories are mysteries that I’ll soon figure out.

A story of Migration - "Thailand to Australia" (two worlds)

I am from an ancient Southeast Asian land,
From Nakhon Phanom in the Kingdom of Siam spices and herbs, sweet sticky rice, durian, and mangosteen.

I am from the rain-soaked rice padi fields, water buffaloes and the seasonal colours of the wet monsoon and the dry winter.
I'm from hot days and holidays, Buddhist festivals of saffron yellow, splashing of water and bright colours of Songkran.

The floating prayer offerings of Loy Kratong,
of flowers, banana leaves, candles, and incense.
The smile on my grandmother's face when she joined us for these festive celebrations.

My family history reaches out to ancient kingdoms of Siam and China, memories of singing an elephant song as school children.
I'm from the southeast and northeast regions of Thailand, from Chanthaburi and Nakhon Phanom.

I am from birthdays that smell of panang curry, green curry, and love.
I am disorientated from migration to Australia,
yet hungry to learn more.
Newcastle brings new beginnings, but also a language barrier and confusion.
I am settled with my mother and her partner- 'Uncle',
But I hold to two countries and two families.

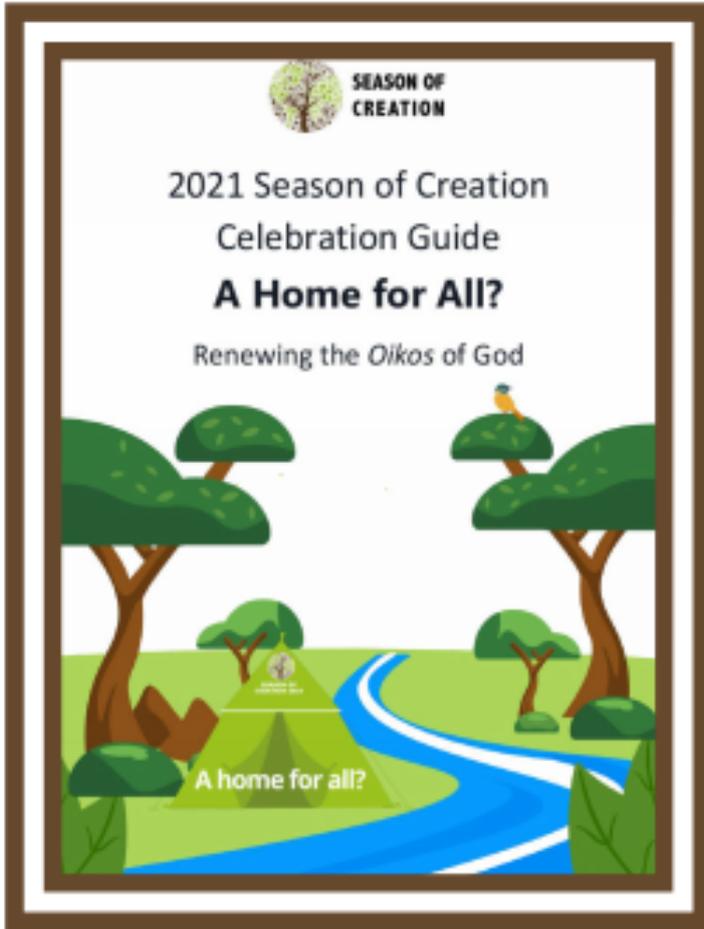

Memories of Thailand remain in my heart,
my journey continues, but it feels uphill.
But I am strong..... I will keep going, and I hope to help my family,

I have kidbua.

Kidbua – Power of positive thinking
Loy Kratong – Buddhist festivals
Song kran – Splashing of water
Nakhon Phanom – Northeast region in Thailand
Chanthaburi – Southern region in Thailand
